The Mike Justis Band has carved a unique niche for itself at festivals and clubs throughout northern California over the past three-plus decades. Built around the compelling original songs of singer/songwriter Mike Justis, the quartet forges a distinctive Americana blend of folk, blues, country and rock styles best heard at the band's memorable live performances. In addition to Justis on lead vocals, acoustic guitar and harmonica, the Mike Justis Band includes his longtime friends and musical compatriots Kathy Barwick (mandolin, resophonic guitar and vocal harmonies), Steve McLane (electric and acoustic guitars and vocal harmonies) and bassists/vocalists Steve O'Neill and Jeff Sears. The music of Mike Justis and the Mike Justis Band can be heard on three critically acclaimed recordings: Barroom Philosopher (2008), One Foot In (2012) and the recently-released live double CD set The Mike Justis Band Live at Wendell's. Flatpicking Guitar Magazine selected Mike's song "On the Modoc Line" for its 2012 CD, Songwriters Sampler.
